

Exercise 1: GL master data

Estimated Completion Time: 45 minutes

1.1 Overview

This exercise requires participants to create GL accounts and profit center

1.2 Instructions

1. Create a new Chart of Accounts with length – 7 and assign a group chart of accounts
2. Assign operational and country chart of accounts to a company code.
3. Create different account groups for the categories expenses, assets, investments, liabilities, inventories
4. Create a GL account for Investments and assign an alternative account number as per the country chart of accounts. Assign the account group created for assets.
5. Create a GL account for Machinery repair cost under primary cost or revenue account type. Link it to a cost element via cost element category option. Assign the account group created for expenses.
6. Create a GL account for accounts receivables as a recon account for customers.
7. Create a profit center, assign a segment to the profit center. Assign the profit center to a company code and activate the same.